

BUSINESS LUNCHEON Wednesday 21st July

with special guest Wazza Bray

When a company describes itself as the creator of “obnoxiously direct communication” you just have to sit up and take note. This international company has a client portfolio any ad agency would be proud of. They have achieved this by being different .... or as its founder would put it, through

“uncommon thinking”

Wazza Bray, Founder and Managing Director of LMG Digital Media - Asia-Pacific, has been a typesetter, rock-band drummer, radio broadcaster and, for one horrific four hour period, installer of insulation bats (long before the current home insulation catastrophe) and tips his hat to anyone who endures that for a living. Wazza co founded LMG Digital Media 17 years ago. The company has expanded to offices in New York and the Gold Coast with clients in 7 countries. More recently he has become an author, writer and keynote speaker. He has also turned his hand to political speechwriting, which he claims is just like writing comedy, except you don't have to stick so close to the truth.

Wazza is recognized as a wildly creative thinker with a lightning wit who has a passion for sharing the tools to unleash the creativity that lies dormant in nearly all of us and then practically apply that to our business lives. Wazza is a unique character and somebody you should meet.
